Every person must come to Jesus for his or her dream to make sense. In fact, without Jesus, you might follow a dream for your life that God never put in your heart. But when your dream is God's dream, it's unstoppable. A dream inspires devotion like the devotion a parent has for a child: you would give.

How do you live a life that pleases God? might so that you endure everything and have patience; and by giving thanks with joy to the Father.
