He traces elusive wildlife and relives ghostly sightings on the summit of Ben Macdui. Mackay Brown elaborates and transforms it.

Despite their dismal prospects the team clings to the beautiful game as a last hope. His story is full of adventure and has become an island classic. Mingling past and present, the human world and the spiritual, George Mackay Brown brings together both the modern islanders and the Orcadians of centuries past, for the same lineaments are discernable in. Here, as in all these 21 stories, his imagination plays upon the past and gives it rich meaning.

His memoirs bring to life individual episodes of bravery, adventure and danger
