He quotes Douglas Adams more than any specialists in the field. The humanism allowed me to discard all of the God bit, and retain the underlying sense of good or morality. What kind of ethical philosophy is it that condemns every child, even before it is born, to inherit the sin of a remote ancestor?

Nov03, A eiselerated it did not like it Recommends it for: However, he leaps off this logical diving board and into a mess of false simplifications about the nature of faith, the logic of science, and the lives of atheists vs. Even if I was an atheist, I would be embarrassed.
