This book was definitely disturbing, but eye-opening - the fact that this kind of twisted thing can happen in the world is shocking and unfortunate, and hopefully books like these, though slightly melodramatic, raise awareness of these cases and prevent new ones in the future. Jan 12, Love rated it really liked it. Pageswithrelatedproducts.TheLittleGhostGirl. But Waller's depravity and ruthlessness go deeper than Shaw knows. The torture, pain, humiliation and sheer neglect that this woman inflicted on those children is beyond the imagination.

Ihadmentallypreparedmyselftoreadaboutthephysicalviolencethoughnot tells parts of the two other children's stories but not in full as if you read both books they each saw and felt it differently. Its up to the other 2 to tell their story as one died during child hood.
