We didn't learn about. I had mixed feelings after reading this one.

There's a lot to the book that build on the ideas of suspense, like the generic. Received this book through a giveaway. But in the end, taking the book in its totality, I felt like the pieces made a kind of symbiotic, if not logical, sense. This was an incredibly quick read.

Just cast your vote for 'To Wander the Labyrinth' in the thriller category. If I was rating this book based upon a satisfying conclusion, I would give it three stars. Overall, the word I would use to describe this novel is "vague", but that isn't a bad thing.
