Alonzo L. Gaskill: Podcast interview discussing The Savior & the Serpent

BYU religion professor Alonzo Gaskill's book, The Savior and the Serpent ( Deseret Book: ), has as its central aim to "liken the story unto.

Perhaps no doctrine has been more misunderstood, and no historical event more misinterpreted, than the Fall of Adam and Eve. Many Christians assume it was.

For the vast majority of us, one of the great challenges of mortality is the need to remember to place the things of God—things eternal—before the things of this world—things mundane. I admit I don't agree with everything in the Savior and the Serpent.

We are dwelling in a world, an environment, that makes us fragile. Nothing like

Reynolds and Sjodahl In light of the overwhelming evidence that this is story, our intent is to examine the story in order to find personal meaning in the Fall.
