As we left the harbor heading out to sea, we saw a few birds perched along the rocky outcroppings and the red lighthouse marking Fortaleza de Sagres high above on the cliffs like a good omen. We really have to put forth an effort to find locals to practice our Portuguese with as they, in turn, like practicing their English on us expats.

In our former lives on Padre Island off the coast of Texas, one of the things we enjoyed most were the sea birds we could see in the wetlands near our house on a canal. A few months ago, we met with our Portuguese attorney and had him write a will for what few assets car, bank account we own here in Portugal.
