And the people awaited with trepidation, attacks of Tibetan bandits. We started across Ulan Daban, deciding to cross dangerous Tsaidam in the shortest direction, thus establishing a new route over Ikhe-Tsaidam and Baga-Tsaidam, to the Neiji Pass. They were laying for us at the exit of the gorge. While approaching Khotan, we heard the story of how year ago the Khotan Tao-t During the visit of the Tashi Lama to India, he was asked whether it was true that he had some special psychic powers. The march of the blue mountains was through a comparatively fertile region of Teijinor, meaning the land governed by the Council of Elders. The horses also were given no food. Hewas an indefatigable climber: We saw neither gold nor silver, either in the dzongs, or in the hands of the people.
