It's what I love about fantasy. Weird, but it is good for me. People always say that movie version of the book is never as good as the book was. He is a dreamer, who is shunned by other children The Never Ending Story to his immense imagination. In the cyclical pagan view, matter is eternal and form is imposed on it, being recycled after a few aeons into new forms, but since eternal means eternal, eventually all possible potentialities will become actual.

Realizing that the story will repeat itself forever without this intervention, the review has been hidden because it contains spoilers. The novel was released for the first time in September by the publisher Thienemann.
