I loved this book! This guy is a genuine Christian, but he doesn't come across as overly teachy or uptight. For those of you that have read this book, is there questions to answer at the end of each chapter?

Dec21,DerekDavidsonrateditreallylikedit. And yet almost all of the moments of clarity that I have ever had in life came in still places. It helped me understand a lot about how different relationships are. Eastham gave practical advice about what makes happy people happy and how to be positive.
