A fortiorithe fact that a possible reduction of the values relating to lead is envisaged does not have an effect on the present proceedings. Thus, the order under appeal does not in any way prejudice the decision to be taken on the merits of the case. Matthias Luecke, the author of the study, recognized the figures are not solid due to variables such as the number of refugees that arrive in Germany, how long they stay and how quickly they integrate and find employment. These are much diminished in comparison with the past, but still considerable. The purpose here would be to show that Europe won't be deflected by Britain's departure. The Federal Republic of Germany submits that the bioavailability limit values thus determined, which the Commission attributed to the national provisions for the purposes of its comparison, are higher than the bioavailability limit values actually fixed by the national provisions themselves. That statement of grounds is inadequate, since the determining factor is not East Demilitarized zone in Syria's Idlib: Expand all Collapse all.
