The character to me is well written showing a well rounded no wait that? View all 6 comments. This story opens up soon after the last book, it is Christmas and Deadly Secrets a desperately cold freezing day.

To find answers, the team Deadly Secrets dig deep into Marissa's life, connecting the dots. Further investigation determines she was attacked by a black-clad person wearing a gas mask; and soon enough, Erika learns of other men and women who's been attacked by a similarly clad and as-yet unidentified person. This is the best instalment yet in what is proving to be a very strong series. What really made Deadly Secrets such a great one for us was Robert Bryndza did such a great job balancing the case with the focus on our characters who we have grown to love.
