Cradle and All has ratings and reviews. Lola said: Well that was a cruel, devilish ending. Pun oh so intended.I needed to read a James Pa.

Cradle and All Summary & Study Guide includes detailed chapter summaries and analysis, quotes, character descriptions, themes, and more.

I'm a reader at heart and so I was tickled pink to get an advanced copy of James Patterson new book coming out in September - Cradle and All. Don't get mixed.

James Patterson Official Website. He provides the co-writer with a page outline, the co-writer fills in the missing parts and, after a final polish from Patterson, four or five books can be turned out each year.

She had made out with boys, but damn it, damn it, damn it, she knew the difference. But, later on, when the dead Rosetti "stood before me where no one had been a moment before", she has recovered herself:

Written in that typical Patterson style:

The best known of these books are those that feature the forensic psychologist Thompson, but, following the success of Along Came a Spider published in the first of the Alex Cross books she gave this up to become a full-time writer - or team-leader you might say.
