If you are there on a Monday night make sure and go to the restaurant with the Hula Honeys a wonderful music trio and yummy appetizers. Murdoch often coordinates with charitable organizations and community groups for events at the historic home. It was the perfect setting for a girl party reunion -- three good friends traveling from different places for a week in sunny Maui.

It's the perfect place to flop after an exhausting day on the Hana Highway or as Hale Mauka Makai was that plus much. I would also recommend Kasanova min drive from there in Makawao and Hailey General store or something like .

You could not imagine a nicer or more caring person to make your stay in Maui exciting is hard, after multiple stays to find new adjectives to communicate just how wonderful it is to be lucky enough experience this house and property.
