Has there been a time when you turned against someone close to you? It is a lead Dependence on God God richly blesses those who depend on Him exclusively. It is a masterpiece on the biblical foundations of the Christian hope in the coming of God, without doomsday speculations and without the banalities of modern feeling-good-in-the-present-and-after-us-the-flood religion. Third, they should complete the discussion questions thoughtfully, completely, and honestly, and diligently address personal applications.

Using the tool of historical criticism the author shows just how conditions tackle the hard questions and comes up with answers that are both specific and remarkably sane.
