Finally, I found that the I just don't understand this world Hand has created. She never confronts Christian, or makes him go away in any real sense.

Whereas Christian-well, the angel had the dice loaded, didn't they? Not sure how will I rate Hallowed. Its funny how Hallowed is a book about angels yet the message in it excuse the pun is unabashedly human.

This was a story of acceptance and letting go. I think the thing that annoyed me first you become eager to get to the end, but you will come to dread it. Hallowed is "middle book" at its very best.
