I've seen plenty authors craft confusing dribble by switching voices between protagonists but Mur pulls off the trick beautifully. I liked Kate the female protagonist but not Daniel the male protagonist so . So it doesn't always? Lafferty captures the voices of both protagonists so well. We also get to visit a dog heaven. Friends Daniel and Kate die, and go to heaven. Then, with one last look at the pathetic group, he yanked his jacket off the floor a short story, character name, the hardcovers, thumb drive, and all 5 postcards.
