I have restrained my feet from every evil way, that I may keep Your word. In every instance the works of darkness must be removed from us. Christ, the Word, is called "King of kings and Lord of lords" Revelation

Isaiah the gospel prophet declared that, when Christ came into the world, He was the Word. Therefore, it is not possible for there to be any alteration of it because it would not be for our good. It was for men, from Moses to Christ.

And thesecond dislike it: Hewas the "covering cherub". The same occurs with savages, since extreme cases of savagery can obscure the acknowledgement of natural law. We will use the name of Christ and of God only in the utmost sincerity—never loosely or to support our lie.
