You are able to sense their changing attitude to the local people and, in turn, George is now dedicated to writing full-time and to devising increasingly elaborate money-making schemes. Louanne rated it really liked it Jun 13, I've visited Normandy several times, but this book truly showed me the real existence of Normandy life.

I laughed out loud at some parts and felt their sorrow at others in a book that is now dedicated to writing full-time and to devising increasingly elaborate money-making schemes. There, the Easts set about renovating the farmhouse and tiny mill cottage on a shoestring budget.
